

Edition, title "Investments", to provide that bonds and other obligations issued by any public housing authority or agency in the United States shall be authorized security for all public deposits and fully negotiable in this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 4 of Article 49A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Investments", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

4. Notwithstanding any restrictions on investments contained in any laws of this State, the State and all public officers, municipal corporations, political sub-divisions, and public bodies, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies, and other persons carrying on a banking business, all insurance companies, insurance associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, and all executors, administrators, guardians, trustees and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds or other obligations issued by a housing authority pursuant to the provisions of Article 44A of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, or issued by any public housing authority or agency in the United States, when such bonds or other obligations are secured by a pledge of annual contributions to be paid by the United States Government or any agency thereof, and such bonds and other obligations shall be authorized security for all public deposits and shall be fully negotiable in this State; it being the purpose of this section to authorize any persons, firms, corporations, associations, political sub-divisions, bodies and officers, public or private, to use any funds owned or controlled by them, including (but not limited to) sinking, insurance, investment, retirement, compensation, pension and trust funds, and funds held on deposit, for the purchase of any such bonds or other obligations and to accept such bonds and other obligations as security for all public deposits; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Article shall be construed as relieving any person, firm or corporation from any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1951.

Approved March 24, 1951.
